September:

University of Alberta Clubs Fair:

The Campus Food Bank invites you to come out to the University of Alberta Clubs Fair during the first week of Fall term to visit our display, learn more about the organization, and to get involved.

October:

October is an exciting month for the Campus Food Bank and you are encouraged to watch for the following events:

Rodeo Burger Fundraiser:

The Campus Food Bank partners with Rodeo Burger annually during the month of October to sell hamburgers by donation. All proceeds go to the Campus Food Bank.

Fundraising Barbeques and Bake Sales:

The Campus Food Bank often organizes a fundraising barbeque and/or bake sale. We invite you to come out and enjoy delicious treats or have lunch with us. All proceeds go to the Campus Food Bank.

Campus Rec. Hot Shots Challenge:

The Campus Food Bank invites you to either participate or even just come out to watch our annual basketball free-throw competition. All admission and donations go towards the Campus Food Bank.

Trick or TrEAT:

The Campus Food Bank invites you to participate in our annual Halloween food drive. This is our biggest food drive of the year when we go to neighborhoods near campus and collect non-perishable food items on Halloween night.

November:

Campus Rec. Co-Ed. Pairs Volleyball:

Every November, Campus Rec. hosts a Volleyball tournament. We encourage you to watch for the event and either participate in or simply come out to support some recreational volleyball. All admission and proceeds go towards the Campus Food Bank.

Campus Food Bank Awareness Week:

The Campus Food Bank hosts a hunger awareness week every November. We invite you to participate in weekly events such as the CFB Challenge and hunger awareness flash mob in order to raise awareness of hunger on campus.

Annie Leonard: Story of Stuff

This November, we are fortunate enough to host speaker Annie Leonard thanks to the Office of Sustainability. Come out to hear a presentation about the obsession people have with “stuff” and the impacts it has on our lives. Admission and donations go to Campus Food Bank.
