WOMEN'S MASOCHISM AND OTHER PSYCHOLOGICAL MYTHS

Speaker:

Paula Caplan

Thursday, October 16
7:30 p.m. - 9:30 p.m.

Humanities Centre
Lecture Theatre 1
University of Alberta

Free Admission

Freud claimed that all women are masochistic by nature, and this thinking is still used by some to explain, for example, why women remain in battering relationships. Dr. Caplan's revelatory study of the origin and persistence of the myth of women's masochism debunks one of the most damaging prejudices with which women have had to live.

Author of The Myth of Women's Masochism, Dr. Caplan, Associate Professor of Applied Psychology at the Ontario Institute for Studies in Education, will challenge traditional psychiatric and societal attitudes toward women. She has also written Between Women: Lowering the Barriers and Barriers Between Women, in which she explores women's relationships to each other.

This lecture is cosponsored by the Advisory Committee on Women's Studies, the Women's Program and Resource Centre (Faculty of Extension) and Athabasca University Women's Studies.

Dr. Cullen,

Would you or another member of your committee like to say something about the Advisory Committee during the introduction to Thursday's plenary session.
I will contact you regarding this. Regina Cochrane

Dear Dr. Cullen:

The IIPE Pla
Advisory Committee on Women's Studies offer of financial support for Dr. Ynestra King's participation in our Institute.
Unfortunately, Dr. King has just recently advised us that she will not be able to come to Edmonton in July as planned.
However, we do still plan to continue with a plenary session on "Feminism and Peace". Replacing Dr. King's presentation will be a joint presentation by Betty Reardon and Barbara Roberts. Dr. Reardon is co-ordinator of the Peace
Education Program of Teachers' College, Columbia University,
New York, and author of Sexicism and the War System (Teachers' College Press, 1985). Dr. Roberts, presently at Dalhousie University, is the author of numerous articles on feminism and peace including, "A Peaceful World for Women: Peace Education Taking Gender into Account" (The History and Social Science Teacher, Vol. 20, #3/4, Spring 1985).

Please find enclosed a copy of the Institute program for details regarding the time and place of the "Feminism and Peace" plenary session. We would like to extend a warm welcome to your committee members to attend this, our public sessions, and/or any of the workshops with a feminist focus.

Dear Ms. Cochrane

The Advisory Committee on Women's Studies is pleased to contribute $500.00 toward the cost of having ~~Dr. Ynestra King~~ participate in this summer's International Institute for Peace Education. We would like to be acknowledged as a cosponsor of her plenary session.

A separate session for our members will not be necessary. We would, however, like to be able to attend ~~Dr. King's~~ plenary session, and would appreciate receiving copies of the program (when it is ready). Finally, if the proceedings of the Institute are published, we would like to receive a copy.

We are pleased to be able to contribute to the Institute's program, and wish you every success.

Sincerely,

Dallas Cullen, Ph.D.

Women's Studies

Dear Dr. Cullen:

1986 has been declared United Nations Year of Peace. And, one of the strongest voices speaking out for peace has been and continues to be that of women.

The Department of Secondary Education at the University of Alberta is, for a second consecutive year, hosting an International Institute for Peace Education to be held on campus July 6 to 12. An integral part of last year's successful institute was the feminist perspective provided by the Women's Studies working group and the plenary session "Women and Peace" by Jo Vellacott, Simone de Beauvoir Institute, Concordia University, Montreal. In this year's program we would like to continue and deepen our examination of peace from a feminist perspective with a plenary session on "Feminism, Ecology, and Peace" by feminist theorist Ynestra King.

Dr. King, (Ph.D. in political science from the University of Massachusetts) is director of the newly established Feminist Peace Studies Institute in New York. She is a co-founder of the Women's Pentagon Action and Women and Life on Earth and is a member of the Institute for Social Ecology. She has authored numerous articles in the emerging field of eco-feminism. Eco-feminism draws on feminist epistemology, nature philosophy and critical theory, examining the relationship between women and nature and how this relationship has resulted in the domination of women. Dr. King's work, which includes articles such as "Feminism and the Revolt of Nature" (Heresies, #13, 1982) and "Toward an Ecological Feminism and a Feminist Ecology" (Machina Ex Dea-Feminist Perspective on Technology, Joan Rothschild, editor), has been cited by feminist writers such as Marilyn French (Beyond Power) and Birgit Brock-Utne (Educating for Peace: A Feminist Perspective).

The planning committee for the International Institute for Peace Education is very interested in having Ynestra King participate in our program. However, whether this occurs or not will depend on funding. The Institute has very limited financial resources. Would your committee be willing to consider jointly sponsoring Dr. King's visit?

$500.00.
- proceedings
- programs
- cosponsor

The expenses involved would include round trip travel from New York to Edmonton, accommodation in Edmotnon, and honorarium. Such an arrangement could include your committee members attending Dr. King's plenary session and workshop and/or a separate public session. Please note that the institute including as well plenary sessions by Rosalie Bartell and Marion Dewar - women who also speak from a feminist perspective.

Thank you for your consideration of this request. Please don't hesitate to contact me at work (471-8886) or at home (428-1796) if you require further information on this matter.

We encourage the participation of the members of your committee in our institute.

Yours truly

Dear Paula:

This is to confirm our telephone conversation of March 17.

The Advisory Committee on Women's Studies, with the Psychologists Association of Alberta, will be cosponsoring your October visit. The Advisory Committee will pay half your airfare, arrange and pay for hotel accommodation on Thursday, October 16, and pay you an honorarium of $750.00 for a public lecture on the evening of October 16. The suggested title of your talk is "Women's Masochism and Other Psychological Myths." I trust these arrangements are satisfactory.

As I mentioned on the phone, psychology is an area where our campus' departmental interest and course offerings in Women's Studies are very weak. We are therefore very pleased that you will be able to visit, since we see this as an excellent way to encourage interest in this crucial area.

Sincerely,

Dallas Cullen, Chair
