Thank you very much for your recent inquiries in regard to the above publication.

There is no cumulative for Volume 6, at the moment. Volume 6 was only published in the three issues that you have received. If there is sufficient interest, a cumulative of this issue may be printed in the new year.

I do apologize for your not having yet received issue number three of Volume 8. Due to technical difficulties, this issue has been delayed. However, two copies will be forwarded to you as soon as it does become available.

Dear Marion;

Re: Canadian Women's Periodicals Index

Thank you very much for your inquiry regarding the above publication.

I am pleased to enclose a current order form indicating the current and back orders that are available and the prices of the various volumes (3 issues). Most issues are available on an individual basis and the cost is approximately $18.00 per issue.

I have been corresponding with Barbara Marshall, Women's Studies Program, Lady Eaton College and would ask you to please clarify that any subscriptions for the Canadian Women's Periodicals Index placed by you for the Women's Centre at Trent University would be a separate subscription to that for the Women Studies Program at Lady Eaton College.

There are a number of Universities that receive numerous subscriptions to the Canadian Women's Periodicals Index for different departments - and it does get a bit confusing!

Thank you very much.

Dear Linda;

Re: Canadian Women's Periodicals Index

I have taken over, on a permanent volunteer basis, the distribution and subscription area of the above publication. There are a number of volumes/issues that are now in short supply and I am attempting to secure "masters" of these so that reprints can be ordered.

I believe Marilyn Assheton-Smith has been in communication with you regarding the possibility that CRIAW may have some additional copies of Volumes 1, 2, 3 and 4 that may be available to us. Marilyn has also asked for updated EIM and Members lists - would you please add in an updated BOARD MEMBERS list? Putting CWPI on a mailing list to automatically receive the updates of these lists would certainly be helpful, and greatly appreciated.

I realize that tracking down masters of the issues/volumes we are short of will likely be time consuming and require some "sleuthing" on your part, and I hesitate to ask that you do this for us, however, the availability of all issues/volumes is very important to the credibility of the Canadian Women's Periodicals Index.

Thank you very much for your assistance, and I look forward to hearing from you.

Yours truly;

Dear Ms. Cote';

Re: Canadian Women's Periodicals Index

Thank you very much for your Fax of May 26, 1993 and enclosed up-dated Educational Institutional member's list and Board Members list.

Please be assured that no billings will be sent to those on either of the lists you provided and that issues of the various volumes will only be sent to the names on the lists, which certainly seems straightforward.

I note that Wilfred Laurier University in Waterloo, Ontario and the Library, St. Mary's University in Halifax, N.S., have been added since I received the last list in September, 1992. This brings the total EI members to 23. Payment for Volume 8 was for 21 members at $50.00 per member - no GST (CRIAW cheque number 0000208, Sept. 17, 1992, amount $1,050.00). I am, therefore, wondering if these additional two memberships should start with Volume 9 in September or whether they should receive Volume 8 and I should invoice CRIAW for an additional $100.00. Please advise.

Thank you once again for forwarding the Board and EI membership lists. I would appreciate receiving up-dated lists as often as changes are made to either list as any change to these lists has a direct affect on circulation and publication, from a numbers point of view, of the Canadian Women's Periodicals Index.

Yours truly;

Dear Ms Dolinsky:

As requested, I am faxing you the Board members' list and the Educational Institutional members' list updated.

It is understood that no invoice should be sent to the members of the list (Educ. Inst.) because CRIAW national office is paying for their subscription.

Once again I want to remind you that only the library or who ever was chosen to receive the CWPI, gets it. The last volume we paid was vol.no.8 issues 1-2-3.

Edmonton AB T6G 2E1

Dear Ms. Dolinsky;

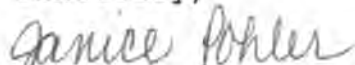

In reference to our phone conversation concerning our mutual client, Mt. St. Vincent University, for back issues of Canadian Women's Periodical Index. We had discussed that Mt. St. Vincent University had ordered the following issues by mistake.

Volume 3 Volume 4 Volume 5

Would it be possible if they returned these issues for a refund or extend their current subscription?

Thank you for your help in resolving this matter. I will be awaiting your reply.

Sincerely,

Janice Pohler
Account Executive

Re: Canadian Women's Periodicals Index

I have been speaking with Janice from Readmore Subscription Services who advises that you wish to return some issues/volumes of the above.

We will accept issues one and two of Volume four, one and two of Volume 5 and the cumulative issue of Volume 3, provided they are received here in such condition to allow us to re-sell them. Along with the returned issues, please enclose an INVOICE to THE FACULTY OF EXTENSION, UNIVERSITY OF ALBERTA, c/o Canadian Women's Periodicals Index, 11019 - 90 Avenue, Edmonton, AB. T6G 2E1 AND TO THE ATTENTION OF; M. Dolinsky, Subscriptions. The invoice should outline what is being returned and the amount of refund requested (Volume 3 - $16.05; Volume 4 issues one and two $5.35 each, total $10.70 and issues one and two of Volume 5 are $17.83 each - total $35.66 FOR A TOTAL REFUND OF $62.41.

It may be simpler if you could contact other libraries in your area who may be interested in purchasing or trading these publications with you!

We are in possession of your cheque number 154666 in the amount of $114.00 in payment of orders to be forwarded to the University of Saskatchewan Library in Saskatoon.

Dear Career Practitioner:

At long last the workshop Rural Women as Business Entrepreneurs is complete! The manual that is enclosed is the culmination of the efforts of much research and many pilot projects, and we are sure that it will meet a need in many communities in Alberta.

In many rural area, job opportunities are limited and women are looking for ways to contribute to the economic support of their families. This workshop resulted from a request from a rural community for an innovative method to encourage rural and Native women to consider entrepreneurship as a way of meeting their goals.

The workshop will introduce several factors necessary for establishing a business, and suggest steps for achieving success. As well, participating in this workshop will introduce local women to others in their community who have an interest in entrepreneurship, to begin establishing a supportive network within the community.

We hope you find this resource useful for your clients and look forward to hearing from you. Should you wish to obtain more background information on the workshop, or discuss the workshop in any way, please contact us at 422-1794. Additional copies of the manual are available at the same number.

Thank you very much for your company cheque number 0691641 in the amount of $107.00 payment in full of subscriptions for the above clients.

However, there is a slight problem in that a subscription for the University of Saskatchewan HAS ALREADY BEEN PAID BY ANOTHER AGENCY and the University of Saskatchewan has already received issue one of Volume 8 of the KWIC Index.

Please be kind enough to advise (as soon as possible) as to whether you wish the $53.50 (Saskatchewan payment) to go towards another subscription, or if you prefer to forward a cheque in the amount of $53.50 for Ottawa and I will return your cheque in hand in the amount of $107.00 . CHEQUE IN THESE PAPERS !!!

In the meantime I am forwarding issue one of Volume 8 to the University of Ottawa.

Dear C. Starr;

Thank you very much for your letter of January 27, 1993 regarding the possibility of entering into an exchange agreement: Canadian Women's Periodicals Index in exchange for your publication.

I have been able to speak with Marilyn Assheton-Smith, who oversees the KWIC publication in Edmonton, and she has assured me that an exchange agreement would fit very nicely.

Enclosed please find issue number one of Volume 8. Issue number two should be available shortly and will be forwarded in due time.

Dear M. Dolinsky:

I am writing in response to the notice and order form for volume 8 of the Canadian Women's Periodical Index, which were sent to Women's Education des femmes. Many of the publications we receive in this office we receive by exchange subscription. I am writing to inquire if this is possible with the Index, whether we have been on an exchange basis in the past, or, given the nature of your publication, that you cannot afford to exchange publications with those periodicals you index.

Much as we would be pleased to acquire the most recent editions of the Canadian Women's Periodical Index, we have absolutely no acquisitions budget for our resource centre; I am not sure we would be able to order a subscription to volume 8. In any case, please let me know whether it is possible to acquire the index on an exchange basis.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

Dear Madam;

Thank you very much for your correspondence via FAX dated
February 5, 1993.

I do apologize for the "mix-up" - due entirely to my lack of proficiency in the French language.

I am enclosing a copy of a letter addressed to your client (Centre de Recherches, De Documentation et D'Information Sue La Femme, in Tunisia) which indicates that a sample copy of the Canadian Women's Periodicals Index was forwarded to them on November 1, 1992.

However, I did not realize that the request was for a subscription to Volume 8 of the Index, nor that payment for that subscription was to be forwarded by your company. Please be assured that Issue number one of Volume 8 was mailed to your client in Tunisia as of Monday, February 8, 1993.

I am pleased to enclose an invoice in the amount of $64.25 in Canadian Funds which represents $50.00 for three issues of Volume 8 of the Canadian Women's Periodicals Index plus shipping
(3 issues at $4.75 per issue).

Issue number two of Volume 8 will be available within the next two weeks and will be forwarded to your client as soon as it arrives in this office.

Thank you very much for your kindness in sending your most recent communication which has certainly clarified the circumstances regarding this subscription.

Yours truly;

Dear Mr. Palmer;

Thank you very much for returning the two copies of the Canadian Women's Periodicals that were forwarded to you in December of 1992.

The two copies forwarded as above were issues two of Volume 5. I do apologize for the mix-up in your receiving two copies of issue two rather than one copy of issue two and one copy of issue three.

I am returning one of the copies of issues two of Volume 5 that were returned by you and am enclosing a copy of issue three of Volume 5.

Thank you for your patience - and for assisting to clear up this matter.

Thank you very much for your recent telephone calls advising that you received the incorrect issues of the Canadian Women's Periodicals Index in December of 1992. Please be kind enough to return the incorrect issues, and upon receipt, I will forward issues two and three of Volume V.
