MEMORANDUM

To: Canadian Women's Periodical Index
11019 --90 Avenue
Edmonton, Alberta. T6G 2E1
FROM: Ghyslaine Faubert

DATE May 1st 1990

Sorry having to return these two issues of 'Canadian Women's Periodicals Index'
Vol. 5. No. 1 -2 1989. We already received both issues with our present subscription
At the begining of January of this year we send you and order No. 10275 for the renewal of our subscription.

I think that this renewal was ^{considered} a second subscription to this title. I have to admit that we should have added more information on that order. The mistake was on our part.

Maybe it is to early to renew our subscription to Vol. 6 No.1 - 1990-1991.

If it is, please tell us when to do so.

I am enclosing that same order No. 10275 wih the necessary details.

I hope this explanation will solve the misunderstanding.

Thank you very much for the attention given to this matter

Dear Ms. Lloyd:

I spoke to you earlier today about the confusion regarding our subscription to Canadian Women's Periodical Index. I had written April 30, 1990, requesting a one-year subscription. When I hadn't received a reply, I wrote again August 7, 1990. Since then I have received two invoices for vol. 6, #1-3, one made out to our old name and address (#100666) and the other to our new name and address (#100506).

As we have only need for one subscription, I am returning invoice #100666 to you and request that you delete that name and address from your files completely. I am in the process of arranging payment of invoice #100506.

Also, I am enclosing extra copies of Canadian Women's Periodicals Index that we were sent. I apologize for the markings on them, but hope you might still be able to use them in some way.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Re: Subscription to Canadian Women's Periodicals Index
Volume 8

Thank you very much for returning the completed order form together with your company cheque number 8980 in the amount of $30.00 re: the above.

I am somewhat confused by the amount of your cheque, as we have you listed as a NON-MEMBER of CRIAW and all of the CWPIIndex issues are subject to income tax.

Would you please be kind enough to clarify that you are a CRIAW MEMBER and forward the GST in the amount of $2.10 - or - if you are NOT a CRIAW member, please forward the balance owing - $10.00 plus $2.80 GST. In the event that you are GST exempt, please provide us with your exemption number.

In the meantime I am pleased to enclose issues number one and number two of Volume 8 along with a receipt in the amount of $30.00 for your records.

Yours truly;

M. Dolinsky

Dear Sisters,

I was shocked to receive the Canadian Women's Periodicals Index (May - August, 1989) and to realize that Communiqu'Elles was not included.

Communiqu'Elles was founded in 1973 and as such is one of the longest-standing feminist publications in Canada. It is published 6 times a year.

It has over 6,000 subscribers, and is published in both English and French editions. As such, it is the only feminist publication in English being published in Québec.

I strongly protest the exclusion of Communiqu'Elles from the Index and request that you explain why it was excluded when a least one publication which has ceased publishing (Broadside) and several non-feminist publications were included.

Sincerely,

Jacquie Manthorne

Re: Canadian Women's Periodical Index, Title Words Index, Kwic

I received the information from Pat on Monday afternoon; she had sent it to me last April so clearly it is I who have missed the information. It is for the fiscal year 1990/91 (to March 31 1991). I am sending you modified figures, estimating numbers based on accrual rather than cash accounting and adding a liability for completion of the volume year. (The subscription year does not fit well with accounting; our issue #1 of each volume covers the four month period from April 1 to August 30th. Our accounts then cover the last issue of one volume and the first two issues of the next volume...in this case volume 5(3) and volume 6(1 and 2). However, formally, our grant from you covers a volume year; volume 6). That I hope explains why I have to think of a "liability", at the end of the accounts, for we still have one issue to print. I hope this makes sense.

Revenue

Money from Craiw for Volume 6	6000.00
Subscription Income, 114 subscriptions	3084.00
Total Revenue	9084.00

Expenses

Staffing Costs of Production	2376.82
Administrative Staffing (accounting, mailings, subscription work)	600.00
Postage	625.82
Long Distance Calls (subscription problems)	154.80
Printing Costs, Vol 5 #3; Vol 6 #1 and 2; covers Vol. 6	2849.00
Computer Services	971.17
Office supplies	61.44
Total Costs	7639.05
Balance	1444.95
Estimated cost Vol. 6, Issue 3 (Staffing, printing, computing, postage), from subscription and grant income.	1974.00
Liability	-529.05

Notes: 1. Marjolaine, as noted above there is a lot of estimating in this statement, but I think I am close (I have had to estimate costs of Vol. 6 issue #2, as well as #3).

2. Production is somewhat higher than the 114 subscriptions because of copies for the board and CRIAW office (Celine, I know you want two, are you getting them?), copies exchanged for periodicals which are received for indexing, and copies used for publicity. We run 150 to 200 copies an issue.

3. Finally Celine, could you do two things:

a) Fax a copy of the names and addresses of the new board members so they can go on the mailing list to Mavis at 403 492-1186

b) Phone Mavis Booker at 403 492-3093. She wants to touch bases with you as she is handling the subscriptions now; she will also want to know if there have been changes in the institutional membership list (additions or deletions) and if there are changes to the membership lists I think (for individual subscribers who are members). There might be a couple of other things.

Finally, Linda, I hope this is adequate for Secretary of State purposes; next year we will do a little better if I carry my responsibilities!

Marilyn.

a) Fax a copy of the names and addresses of the new board members so they can go on the mailing list to Mavis at 403 492-1186

b) Phone Mavis Booker at 403 492-3093. She wants to touch bases with you as she is handling the subscriptions now; she will also want to know if there have been changes in the institutional membership list (additions or deletions) and if there are changes to the membership lists I think (for individual subscribers who are members). There might be a couple of other things.

Finally, Linda, I hope this is adequate for Secretary of State purposes; next year we will do a little better if I carry my responsibilities!

Marilyn.

Dear Marilyn,

I am sending you a set of all the back issues we have here (some are just a few left) up to now, 3 extra sets of Vol. 4, No.1, 2, & 3 and the inventory sheet for the storage room telling you how many boxes we have left.

If you feel it would be easier for both of us that you send me the orders through modem and invoice the customer yourself instead of putting the books through the mail twice, I would be pleased to mail the books from here. Please let me know what you think about it.

Hoping everything is satisfactory to you.

Best wishes,

Institut canadien de recherches sur les femmes (ICREF)

L'Institut canadien de recherches sur les femmes, une organisation nationale non gouvernementale, fut fondée en 1976 dans la lancée de l'Année internationale de la femme.

Mission

L'ICREF a pour mission de coordonner, stimuler et diffuser des travaux de recherche sur la réalité vécue par des femmes et d'assurer à celles-ci et à leurs expériences une place équitable dans l'ensemble des connaissances et de la recherche sur le Canada, son peuple, sa culture, son économie et ses politiques. L'Institut encourage également la participation des femmes à tous les aspects de la recherche.

Objectifs

- Améliorer la condition des femmes au moyen de la recherche féministe et de la recherche centrée sur les femmes.
- Encourager et faciliter l'échange d'information et la communication entre universitaires, travailleuses communautaires et militantes, groupes de femmes et personnes intéressées.
- Diffuser les résultats des recherches à l'aide de publications tels Les Documents de l'ICREF, Perspectives féministes et les Actes des colloques de l'ICREF.
- Appuyer la recherche effectuée dans des domaines d'intérêt pour les Canadiennes et entreprise par elles.

Adhésion

Toute personne qui partage les objectifs de l'ICREF peut en devenir membre.

Structure

L'ICREF est une organisation bénévole sans but lucratif, avec des membres partout au pays et à l'étranger. Élus par ces derniers, les membres du Conseil d'administration travaillent bénévolement. Le Conseil se compose d'une représentante par province ou territoire et de six représentantes indépendantes. La présidente, la présidente sortante, la présidente désignée, la trésorière et la secrétaire forment le Comité exécutif. Le siège social bilingue de l'ICREF est situé à Ottawa.

Publications

Les Documents de l'ICREF: Une série de documents de recherche dans diverses disciplines ou documents interdisciplinaires et dont le but est d'améliorer les connaissances et la compréhension de la réalité des femmes.

Perspectives féministes: Une série d'essais et d'articles d'opinion sur la réalité vécue par des femmes et sur leur préoccupations.

Bulletin: Une publication trimestrielle qui contient des nouvelles récentes sur la recherche, sur les documents audio-visuels; des annonces de conférences, de possibilités d'emploi, de subventions; des invitations à soumettre des articles et autres nouvelles. Pour les membres de l'ICREF seulement.

Autres publications: Des outils de recherche, y compris un répertoire de sources de financement de la recherche, un répertoire des articles publiés dans les périodiques canadiens pour femmes, et des rapports sur les projets de recherche commandités par l'ICREF.

Soutien de la recherche

Banque de chercheuses de l'ICREF: Une base de données informatisée sur des chercheuses féministes (de toutes disciplines) et de leurs travaux de recherche.

Colloque: Une assemblée générale annuelle et un colloque thématique offrant des exposés par des personnes et des groupes, des discussions, des ateliers, et des séances de travail liées au développement des réseaux de chercheuses.

Collaboration: L'ICREF collabore avec des chercheuses et des groupes de chercheuses pour organiser des colloques, des activités spéciales, des séminaires de recherche et des ateliers.

Bourses de recherche: L'ICREF subventionne des projets de recherche innovateurs visant à l'amélioration des conditions de vie des femmes. Le fonds commémoratif Martha Danylewycz commandite annuellement un projet de recherche sur l'histoire des femmes.

Statut de chercheuse associée: Ce statut permet à des chercheuses autonomes de se réclamer appui de l'ICREF dans leurs demandes auprès des bailleurs de fonds.

Prix et titres honorifiques: Afin d'encourager et de faire connaître la recherche féministe, plusieurs prix sont présentés annuellement: le prix Marion

Porter pour le meilleur article de recherche féministe; le prix Robertine Barry pour le meilleur article féministe publié dans un journal ou périodique; et le prix Laura Jamieson pour le meilleur ouvrage féministe d'une auteure canadienne, à l'exception des oeuvres littéraires. Le prix Muriel Duckworth est attribué à une féministe qui, par sa recherche-action dans le domaine de la justice sociale, y compris le pacifisme, a contribué de façon marquante à l'amélioration de la condition féminine au Canada.

Des titres honorifiques à vie sont attribués annuellement à des personnes qui se sont distinguées par leur contribution à la recherche féministe ou par la promotion de cette recherche.

Financement

L'ICREF est reconnaissant envers ses membres, envers toutes les personnes qui l'appuient financièrement et envers le Programme de promotion de la femme du Secrétariat d'État dont il reçoit une partie significative de son budget de fonctionnement. Il poursuit toujours cependant son objectif d'indépendance financière en organisant des levées de fonds pour ses projets spéciaux, en obtenant des bourses de recherche et en enrichissant son fonds de dotation. Votre participation à la croissance de l'ICREF peut prendre plusieurs formes: un don direct, une contribution jointe à votre cotisation annuelle, un don par voie de testament. Ces contributions peuvent être appliquées, selon votre choix, au fonctionnement de l'ICREF, à des bourses de recherche, à un projet particulier ou à un fonds spécial. Nous vous invitons chaleureusement à devenir membre de l'ICREF et de contribuer financièrement au futur de l'Institut.

Dear Launa,

I am answering to your request for information on the Educational Institutional Membership sent through E-Mail. The Educational Institutional Membership is new since last year (see grey Brochure). Institutional membership existed before and still do as part of the different memberships offered. (see purple Brochure) I have to say that EIM has little to do with standing orders for publications.

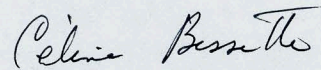

The E.I.M. addresses itself to Colleges, Universities and School Boards to request their support, through a larger contribution, for CRIA W research. We send to each E.I.M. as part of the benefits of this membership, 1 set of our publications to Community Colleges and School Boards; 2 sets to Universities under 10,000 student enrolment; and 3 sets to Universities with 10,000 and over student enrolment. These members provide us with 1, 2 or 3 different addresses to their choice where they want the entitled publications to be sent. (It explains why you may have different names or departments and same address). We (you for CWPI and us for our publications) are sending one sample, every time a new publication is out to each address appearing on the E.I.M. list. When we have a new Educational Institutional Member, we are sending the complete series of the publications. If University library name doesn't appears on this list they have to place their order through the normal channel.

If the same name may appear on the subscribers list, I presume it is because they are paying personally for the subscription, that could be checked.

I know it sounds pretty complicated. I am sending you the two brochures for membership, one for EIM and the regular one hoping that it will clarify things for you.

If you need any other information or clarification, please do not hesitate to contact me through e-mail or otherwise.

Sincerely,

Communication with CRIAW.

November 30, 1990 - e-mailed Celine to request a list of all CRIAW members and a short list of new members since April 19, 1990 (the date of our latest list); requested info on John Coutts Library Service (they are invoiced at member rate of $25 for each of their clients - also I find no record of them being CRIAW members); requested a list of names, addresses, phone #'s of all OUTGOING and INCOMING CRIAW board members. JKf

Subject: Hi Nola, Hi Mair,

From: WCSCRIAW@ADMIN.CARLETON.CA

Nice to communicate with you again. As requested, we are sending you a membership list this week.

I wish to help you the best I can but we first need to clarify certain things.

WE have received payments for unknown invoices. After inquiries, it appeared that these invoices were done for C.W.P.I. orders. There was no returning address for payment on them.

I can send the orders for back issues. Were the invoices sent already?

In order to keep our accounting records straight, few points have to be clarified. To my understanding:

1) All payments for Vol. 5 and up should be address to Canadian Women's Periodicals Index (CRIA) to your address.

2) your name and address should appear on your invoice for payment.

➤ 3) we should handle orders, invoicing, payments and shipping for back issues orders.

➤ 4) A record should be kept for Vol. and No. sold starting Vol. 5 by your group.

Waiting for an answer before answering the requests.

Best wishes to you both.

Celine

Hi, Celine. It's been awhile since Mair and I last sent you a message, I know. We've been ironing out some wrinkles in our ~~new~~ CWPI system here. I'd like to ^{request} ~~ask~~ your ~~for~~ ^a couple of ~~of~~ assistance on a few matters now. Please feel free to message me back if ~~it~~ ~~makes~~ ^{no} my requests are confusing in any way, or impossible. Firstly, could you mail me a current CRAW membership list? I'd like one on hand so that when I get subscriptions at the reduced CRAW-member rate, I can check their names against the list to ensure they are members. ~~Also~~, Secondly, we have very few (next to none) back issues here. Could you please send the following two subscribers ~~each~~ the following items? To Andrea Levan at 232 Walbrod Road, Sudbury, Ontario, P3E 2G9: 1 copy ~~each~~ of cumulative issue #1 (covers May 85 to April 85); Volume 2, Numbers 1, 2, 3; Volume 3, Numbers 1, 2, 3; Volume 4, Numbers 1, 2, 3.

To. Lakehead University Library at 955 Oliver Road, Thunder Bay, Ontario, P7B 5E1: same as above.
