Dear Ms. Forestier:

Thank you for your letter of August 19th requesting that your November CRIAW Conference 1991 be publicized in our Vis-à-Vis calendar.

We regret that we are unable to include your announcements, as the next issue is going to be released in November, and your event will take place in November.

To list an event in our calendar column, we recommend four to six months notice to allow people who wish to attend the time to register, etc. We hope this won't discourage you from sending us other events to publicize in our newsletter.

Should you require more information on the subject, do not hesitate to contact me at 728-1865.

Again, thanks for the interest, and we hope to hear from you in the future.

Yours sincerely,

Karen Rodgers

CRIAW CONFERENCE 1991

CRIAW is coming, CRIAW is coming... The 1991 Canadian Research Institute for the Advancement of Women (CRIAW) Conference will be held November 8-10 1991 at the Westin Hotel in Edmonton, Alberta on the theme Global Vision/Local Action. Canadian feminist research activities are generating some exciting and interesting material and the Conference Program Committee has organized the submissions received into a provocative and entertaining series of panel sessions, individual presentations and discussion groups focussed in such diverse areas as women and education, women and the workplace, women and the state, women's knowledge and much, much more. In addition, there will be music, dancing, singing and keynote speakers Claire Bonenfant of the Fédération des femmes du Québec and Glenda Simms, president of the Canadian Advisory Council on the Status of Women. You can register for the full program or for specific sessions. The conference site is wheelchair accessible. Child care, French/English translation and assistance for the hearing impaired will be available. For further information contact the CRIAW conference coordinator, 11043-90 avenue, Edmonton T6C 1A6, telephone (403) 492-8950.

Marcelline:

Hope this is OK. It may be a bit too long for some newsletters so the part about the keynote speakers could be cut out. Let me know if it's not suitable and I'll come up with something else. Unless I'm on the wrong wavelength (perfectly possible given my schedule lately) this is the blurb for newsletters, the news release will be done later this month. Is that right? I'm around until Friday noon and then again Monday. A bientôt.

WOMEN'S PROGRAM AND RESOURCE CENTRE
Faculty of Extension, University of Alberta 11019 - 90 Avenue
Edmonton, Alberta T6G 2E1
(403) 492-3093

The Women's Resource Centre, on the University of Alberta campus, supports a wide range of services, including housing more than 170 newsletters and periodicals. The majority are published by women's groups, but included are those produced by social planning, education, immigrant, human rights, labour and health groups if they discuss in part issues of concern to women. These publications are available for public perusal at no charge, during the following hours: Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday - 10:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.; Thursday - 10:30 a.m. to 6:00 p.m.

Current holdings, which are constantly expanding, are identified in the following alphabetical entries by the notation periodical, newsletter or reference. Each is also identified as an English, French or Bilingual publication. Date of first issue is noted, and when applicable, date of last issue. The designation KWOC appears if the publication is indexed in the Canadian Women's Periodicals Index, which is produced at the Resource Centre and available for quick and easy reference to articles on a specific topic or by a particular author.

Additional Material Available

Another major section of the Women's Resource Centre is dedicated to books, reports, essays and articles on subjects of interest to women. An easy-to-operate computer on the premises locates material by title, author or subject. Books may be signed out for two-week periods, with purchase of a $5 yearly membership.

Pamphlets from more than 100 local, provincial and national groups and organizations are available at the Resource Centre, and a bulletin board detailing events of interest is updated regularly. A referral wheel provides a guide to individuals, professionals and organizations working in a wide variety of areas. Knowledgeable and friendly staff are always present to assist visitors.

The Resource Centre also supports the efforts of the Women's Program, Faculty of Extension (at the same location), in making available information to a growing number of women who register in Women's Program courses each year.

ASSOCIATION CANADIENNE POUR L'ETUDE DE L'EDUCATION DES ADULTES

RESIDENT'S MESSAGE

number of important initiatives were en by the Board at our 9th Annual ference in Victoria last spring. At that e several ad hoc committees were formed f asked to explore the issues of a manent secretariat, a Newsletter lity-format, Conference '92 site ection, and translation-communication. eleconferenced Board meeting was held in tober to address the progress of these ommittees as well as other issues.

our last conference the Francophone rtfolio met and drafted several ommendations and requests to improve communication between Anglophones and ncophones. One request was to publish ference papers that missed the lication deadline. This was done and a occeedings Addendum" was mailed to all ference attendees. As a result of another ommodation we will be publishing an ended English abstract for all papers in nch at next year's conference. Other as are currently being addressed by the ecutive and appropriate sub-committees. particular, Denise Paquette-Frenette has d a positive response from the Secretary State regarding translation grants and is rently drafting an application for ding.

e Executive is in the process of developing lity and constitutional changes preitated by last year's survey results and ormal growth demands. These will be esented to the membership next spring. is also anticipated that by next spring the velopment of a strategic plan for ASAE/ACEEA will be drafted and mmunicated to the membership.

orge Ambury, Jeannine Roy-Poirier and ula Brook met recently in Ottawa to ntinue their planning of next year's conference. This will be our 10th Anniversary Conference and several special events are being planned. Marie Gillen has been asked to identify and recommend individuals who deserve to be recognized for their special contribution to the Association over the last 10 years. James Draper as head of the '92 Conference Selection Committee is preparing a report for the Executive and we hope to begin planning for this conference well in advance. Don Brundage, Managing Editor for the Journal, recently advertised the positions of Managing Editor and English Editor. Both Don and Catherine Warren will be stepping down after guiding the Journal's development through its early stages.

On another front, I would like to welcome Marti Cleveland-Innes as the Women's Portfolio Chair. Marti took over from Nathalie Griffon who was the Chair of this portfolio since its inception two years ago.
Finally, it should be noted that we are still searching for a B.C. Regional Representative. If there are any volunteers who wish to serve in this position, please let me know.

In conclusion, I want to recognize and thank the committees who are addressing several important issues that will significantly influence the future direction of the Association. Most importantly, I want to thank the Executive who are hard at work on a planning and policy manual as well as dealing with the normal activities of the Association. With our membership fluctuating around 400, I want to thank all our members for supporting and contributing to the promotion of research and the dissemination of knowledge in the field of adult education.
