To The 1991 CRIAW Organizational Committee

To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing this letter on behalf of three women who would like to apply for funding that is available for women with disabilities at this conference. We are part of the group Alberta Women With Disabilities which is a women's support group for all women with many types of disabilities and our group is provincial wide. We have the money to pay registration fees for two of the women in our group however we also have another 3 women who would be willing to go if they could get thier registration fees covered by the grant available for women with disabilities. The names of the three women are Kerri Hansen, Peggy Gunn Graham and

Janet E. Campbell. For further information please call Janet at 469-6148. Thank you. Yours sincerely Janet E. Campbell

Dear Marcelline:

This note just arrived at our office. Would you like to give her a call? I'm really in a rush and not sure how much of that fund has been used. (not all, I think)

Also, we got a note about display tables. I assume you know that CRIAW always has a table too?

Sorry this is so abrupt. I'll write or call soon.

To Whom It May Concern:

Last year, I had the privilege of attending your fabulous conference in P.E.I. and am very keen on attending again this year. I am writing because I am a disabled woman who is on a limited income and finding the money to allow me to come is tough. If you know of any potential funding sources which would cover my travel expenses to attend your conference, could you please let me know. Also, could you please send me further information regarding

Dear Celine

The woman's name is NANCY LEAR.
Her attendant is JOANNE WATSON.

Nancy needs a double room with two beds. Also do you know if the bathroom is equipped with a standard width door to accommodate her wheelchair?

Finally has the conference committee made any special arrangements re: discounts for attendant accommodation, meals etc. For example, does the attendant have to pay registration fee?

September 12th, 1991

Dear Linda,

Spoke to Agathe about allocating money to woman and her assistant from Newfoundland and we agree that she should come. The only other person who has asked for money is a presenter from Vancouver. Expenses for these two women will amount to approximately $2000.00 leaving another $2000.00 for other requests.

As discussed on the phone, Newfoundland woman(wish I knew her name!) will find funding for her registration and accomodation and we will pay her airfare out of the $4000.00 allocated to women with disabilities.

Was unable to reach Marilyn but we're sure she would agree!

Talk to you soon. Marcelline
